□ 1851

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Ms. MOLINARI. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the bill just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HASTINGS of Washington). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 359

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that my name be removed as a cosponsor of H.R. 359.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

PROPOSED MOTION TO DENY MONEY FOR GROUND TROOPS TO BOSNIA

(Mr. METCALF asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. METCALF. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion at the desk which I will not bring before the House this evening. My motion, had it passed, would have denied money to send ground troops to Bosnia without the President coming and essentially getting a complete accord with the House before he did that.

I have withdrawn this motion, Mr. Speaker, and I will not act on this motion because I have been assured that the Committee on Rules will, on Thursday night, bring up a rule on the Hefley bill. The Hefley bill does the same thing in a different way. I am very supportive of that route also.

I just want to say, Mr. Speaker, that I think before we allow money to be spent to send ground troops to Bosnia, we must get a complete explanation of what is the plan, what are the vital United States interests involved, what is the exit strategy. All these things are absolutely essential, and the Hefley bill will do this that.

Mr. Speaker, at this time I will not bring up the motion, and we will have a vote on this before we go home for Thanksgiving, in my view.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. ARMEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I thought I would take a minute to advise our Members that we expect no more votes this evening. The House will reconvene tomorrow morning at 10.

We should expect tomorrow morning that we will be able to deal with some possible appropriations conference reports, the foreign operations conference report, the Interior conference report, the Treasury-Postal conference report. All of these are subject to a rule.

Then, of course, it is also possible, Mr. Speaker, and I have no definitive information, but Members should be aware it is also possible that there could be some action on a continuing resolution. Those, basically, are the comments I would like to make.

Mr. GEPHARDT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ARMEY. I yield to the gentleman from Missouri.

Mr. GEPHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman if he expects the reconciliation conference to be voted on in the House on Friday.

Mr. ARMEY. I thank the gentleman for his inquiry.

My best guess at this time is that we would expect to vote on the reconciliation conference report on Friday, the Balanced Budget Act on Friday, and we
